Central Tea Board (Provident Fund) By-Laws, 1952.

1. Short title.—These by-laws may be called the Central Tea Board (Provident Fund) By-laws, 1952.

2. Definitions.—In these by-laws:—

(a) “Family” means

(i) in the case of a male subscriber, the wife or wives and children of a subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber:

Provided that if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which the parties belong to be entitled to maintenance, she shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber’s family in respect of matters to which these by-laws relate, unless the subscriber subsequently indicates by express notification in writing to the Board that she shall continue to be so regarded.

(ii) In the case of a female subscriber, the husband and children of a subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of a subscriber:

Provided that if a subscriber by notification in writing to the Board expresses her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber’s family in matters to which these by-laws relate unless the subscriber subsequently cancels formally in writing her notification excluding him.

NOTE 1.—“Children” means legitimate children.

NOTE 2.—An adopted child shall be considered to be a child when under the personal law of the subscriber, adoption is legally recognised as conferring the status of a natural child.

(b) “Salary” means basic pay and includes leave salary;

(c) “Servant of the Board” means a salaried officer or servant of the Board, other than a Government servant whose services have been lent or transferred to the Board;

(d) “the Act” means the Central Tea Board Act, 1949 (XIII of 1949);

(e) “Fund” means the Provident Fund constituted and established under these by-laws;

(f) “Member” means a member of the Fund;

(g) “Board” means the Central Tea Board and

(h) “Secretary” means the Secretary to the Board and includes an Acting or Assistant Secretary.

3. Constitution of the Fund.—The Fund shall be deemed to have been constituted and established as from the 1st day of August, 1949, for the benefit of all servants of the Board except such servants as the board may in their discretion decide not to admit to membership thereof.

4. Members.—Subject to the provisions of by-law 3, every servant of the Board in receipt of a salary in excess of Rs. 30 per month shall become a member of and subscribe to the Fund. Every servant of the Board in receipt of a salary of Rs. 30 per month or less may at his option become a member of, and subscribe to, the Fund.

Provided that officers and servants of the Board, who are deemed to have been appointed as officers and servants of the Board in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Act, 1949 (XIII of 1949) shall be deemed to be members of, and subscribing to, the Fund.

5. Amount of Subscriptions.—(a) The subscriptions to the Fund shall be at the rate of one-twelfth of the monthly salary of each member:

Provided that in the case of a member employed for a term of years under a specific Agreement, the rate shall be such rate not exceeding one-twelfth as may be provided in the Agreement.

Provided further that an officer or servant of the Board, who is deemed to have been appointed as such in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Act shall subscribe to the Fund at the rate of one-tenth of his monthly salary.

(b) The Board shall have the power to deduct from the salary of any member such sum as may be required to pay any subscription due by him to the Fund.

6. Account of the Fund.—The Fund shall consist of (a) subscriptions and contributions which are to be carried to the Fund in accordance with these by-laws, (b) such additions to the Fund as the Board may at any time and from time to time decide to make, (c) the income of the Fund and (d) the income from investments made under by-law 8.

7. Management of the Fund.—The Fund shall be vested in the Board and managed by or on behalf of the Board and these by-laws shall be interpreted by the Board whose decision shall be final and binding upon the members.

8. Investment of the Fund.—All moneys (including the net income of the Fund for the time being available for distribution) from time to time received by the Board and not presently required for making any payments pursuant hereto, may be utilised by the Board and shall be deemed to be a loan from the Fund carrying interest at five per cent. per annum and the Board may at any time repay any such loan, and any moneys which the Board may not desire to utilise or which may have been so repaid by the Board may be invested in any security in or upon which trust moneys may lawfully be invested under the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, or may be placed on deposit with any bank or banks approved by the Central Government. All such investments may at any time be varied or transferred into or for others of a like nature as may seem expedient to the Board.

9. Contribution by the Board.—The Board shall contribute to the Fund on the 31st day of March in each year a sum which shall be equal to 6½ per cent. of the aggregate of the salaries drawn by the members during the year ending that date.

Provided that in respect of the officers and servants of the Board deemed to have been appointed as such, in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Act, the contribution to the Fund by the Board in each year shall be equal to 10 per cent. of the aggregate of the salaries drawn by them during the year.

10. Subscribers' Account.—A separate account in Form A of the First Schedule to these by-laws shall be maintained for each member and such account shall show:—

- (a) the member's subscription;
- (b) the amount which the Board may credit under by-law 8 as income derived from such subscriptions;
- (c) the member's share of the Board's contribution and of such additions to the Fund as the Board may, in their discretion, decide to make; and
- (d) the amount which the Board may credit under by-law 12 as income derived from the member's share of the Board's contribution and additions.

11. All expenses of the Fund shall be met from the income of the Fund.

12. Income of the Fund.—So much of the Income of the Fund as the Board may from time to time decide as available for distribution shall be credited on the 31st day of March in each year to the accounts of the members in the manner following, that is to say, in column 3 of the account referred to in by-law 10, there shall be credited to each member a sum bearing the same proportion to the total sum made available for distribution by the Board as the net income earned by the total subscriptions to the Fund of the members in column 2 bears to the total subscriptions to the Fund at the date of such crediting, and in column 5 shall be credited to each member a sum bearing the same proportion to the balance of the income so made available as aforesaid as the amount standing to the credit of the member in column 4 bears to the total amount standing to the credit of all members in that column at the date of such crediting:

Provided that the amount credited to the account of each member in column 3 shall not be less than the amount which would have been earned by the subscriptions of members in column 2, if these subscriptions had been deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank from time to time as received.

13. The accounts of the Fund shall be made up yearly to the 31st day of March.

14. Investment Fluctuation Account.—On the 31st day of March in every year the investments of the Fund shall be valued and any difference between the value so found and the value of the same investments on the preceding 31st day of March and between the value so found of any investments purchased during the preceding 12 months and the purchase price of such investments shall be transferred to a separate account to be called "The Investment Fluctuation Account." When the amount standing to the credit of a member shall become payable, the amount shall be reduced by a sum that bears the same proportion to the sum standing to his credit as the amount standing to the debit of the Investment Fluctuation Account shall bear to the value of the said investments as found on the preceding 31st day of March. If the said Investment Fluctuation Account shall be at credit, the amount standing to the credit of the member only shall be payable to him.

15. Lapse & Forfeiture Account.—All amounts which the Board shall decide to treat as lapses and forfeitures shall be transferred to a separate account to be called "The Lapse and Forfeiture Account" and shall be used and applied by the Board as a Reserve Fund to meet any loss or depreciation of or in the investment for the time being of the Fund. Any profit arising on any of the said investments shall be transferred to the Lapse and Forfeiture Account. If and when the Board shall be of the opinion that the amount to the credit of the Lapse and Forfeiture Account is sufficient to meet any possible loss or depreciation of or in the said investments, the surplus, if any, may be divided amongst the members in such proportion as the Board may decide.

16. (a) When the amount standing to the credit of a member who has been dismissed from the service of the Board becomes payable, the Board may direct that the whole or any part of the contributions of the Board and of any interest accrued thereon shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of the member and such amount shall be transferred to the Lapse and Forfeiture Account.

(b) When the amount standing to the credit of a member becomes payable, the Board may direct that any amount due under a liability incurred by the member to the Board up to the total amount of the contributions of the Board to the account of the member with interest thereon, shall be deducted from the amount payable to the member and that the amount so deducted shall be paid to the Board or to the Fund as the case may be.

(c) When the amount standing to the credit of a member becomes payable on his resignation from the service of the Board before having completed five years therein, the Board may direct that the whole or any part of the contributions of the Board to the credit of the account of such member and of any interest accrued thereon, shall be deducted from the amount standing to the credit of the member and the amount so deducted shall be transferred to the Lapse and Forfeiture Account. Ordinarily the Board shall not direct any such deduction to be made in a case where (i) the member shall have been transferred with the previous consent of the Board to permanent Government service and (ii) a member establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that his retirement is necessitated by incapacity for further service.

17. Subject to any adjustment under by-law 14 and to any deduction under by-law 16, the amount standing to the credit of a member shall become payable only on the death or on the retirement of the member from the service of the Board.

18. Advances to and withdrawals by members.—The Board may at any time and from time to time make a temporary advance to a member from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund in respect of his own subscriptions subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) No advance shall be granted unless the Board is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it and an undertaking is given that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise:—
  - (i) to pay expenses incurred in connection with the prolonged illness of the applicant or any member of his family or any person actually dependent on him,
  - (ii) to pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the applicant or any member of his family,
  - (iii) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by his religion it is incumbent on him to perform.
- (b) An advance may also be sanctioned for other good reasons if the necessity for such an advance is urgent and established to the satisfaction of the Board.
- (c) An advance shall not except for special reasons exceed 66-2/3rd per cent. of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber.
- (d) A second advance shall ordinarily not be granted if a previous advance together with interest thereon is still outstanding against a subscriber. A second advance might be granted in special cases, provided the combined sum of the amount outstanding from the first advance and the amount of the second advance does not exceed the amount admissible under clause (c) above.
- (e) Advances granted shall carry interest simple or compound at such rate, and shall be repaid in such monthly instalments, as the Board may direct.

19. (a). The account of a member shall be closed

- (i) in the event of his death, on the next day thereafter;
- (ii) in the event of retirement or dismissal from service of the Board, on the day thereof.

(b) When the account of a member is closed, such amount if any, as the Board may decide, shall be added thereto in respect of interest and the contributions of the Board for the period from the 31st day of March preceding death, retirement or dismissal, as the case may be, of the member to the date of the closing of his accounts.

(c) Interest on the amount standing to the credit of a member when his account is closed shall be payable till the end of the month preceding that in which payment of such amount is made or till the end of the sixth month after the month in which such amount became payable, whichever is earlier.

Provided that no interest shall be payable after the date which the Board has intimated to the person entitled to receive payment, or his agent, as the date on which the Board is prepared to make payment in cash or after the date on which a cheque for the amount in favour of that person is posted to his address.

20. Nomination.—(a) A subscriber shall, as soon as may be after joining the Fund, send to the Secretary a nomination conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable, has not been paid:

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family.

(b) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under clause (a), he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.

(c) Every nomination shall be in such one of the Forms set forth in the Second Schedule as is appropriate in the circumstances.

(d) A subscriber may at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Secretary.

Provided that the subscriber shall along with such notice send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this by-law.

(e) A subscriber may provide in a nomination—

- (i) in respect of any specified nominee that in the event of his predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person as may be specified in the nomination;
- (ii) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein: provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family.

(f) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under sub-clause (i) of clause (e) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of sub-clause (ii) of clause (e) or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Secretary a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this by-law.

(g) Every nomination made, and every notice of cancellation given, by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Secretary.

21. Subject to any adjustment under by-law 14, and to any deduction under by-law 16, on the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.

(a) When the subscriber leaves a family—

- (i) If a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of by-law 20 in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination;
- (ii) If no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family, become payable to the members of his family in equal shares;

Provided that no share shall be payable to—

- (1) sons who have attained legal majority;
- (2) sons of a deceased son who have attained legal majority;
- (3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (4) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive;

If there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4).

Provided also that the widow or widows and child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (a) of the first proviso.

NOTE.—Any sum payable under these by laws to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such member under sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

(b) When the subscriber leaves no family, if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of by law 20 in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

NOTE 1.—When a nominee is a dependant of the subscriber as defined in clause (c) of section (2) of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

NOTE 2.—When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of by-law 20 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the relevant provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, are applicable to the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

22. Agreement.—Every member shall sign an agreement in Form B of the First Schedule to these by-laws, agreeing to abide and be bound by these by-laws.

23. Annual Audit of Accounts.—The accounts of the Fund shall be closed as at 31st March in each year and audited annually by the auditors of the Board.

24. Annual statement of Accounts.—(a) As soon as possible after the close of each year the Secretary shall send to each member a statement of his account in the Fund—showing the opening balance at the beginning of the year, the total amount credited or debited during the year, the total amount of interest credited at the end of the year, and the closing balance at the end of the year.

(b) The Secretary shall attach to the statement of account an inquiry whether the subscriber desires to make any alteration in any nomination made under these rules.

(c) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement, and errors should be brought to the notice of the Secretary within two months of the receipt of the statement.

25. Annual Report.—An annual report accompanied by the certified accounts for the year shall be submitted to the Board by the Secretary, as soon as after the year's working as possible.

26. All receipts of the Funds shall be paid into a separate account with the Imperial Bank of India or any other bank or banks approved by the Central Government. Such account shall be operated by the Secretary:

Provided that cheques for more than one thousand rupees shall be countersigned by the Chairman, Central Tea Board.

[No. 52(10)/53-Prop.]

New Delhi, the 18th February 1953

S.R.O. 350.—In pursuance of the provisions of clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 18 of the Displaced Persons (Debts Adjustment) Act, 1951 (LXX of 1951), the Central Government hereby specifies the following conditions of the contract for the purposes of the said section, being conditions which in the opinion of the Central Government are of a technical nature, namely:—

- (1) that a claim shall be filed with the district magistrate or other like authority whether accompanied by an affidavit or not;
- (2) that the insured building or building containing the insured property shall not become unoccupied and remain unoccupied for the period specified in the contract.

[No. 54(17)/52-Prop.]

S.R.O. 351.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 56 of the Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1950 (XXXI of 1950), the Central Government hereby directs that the following further amendments shall be made in the Administration of Evacuee Property (Central) Rules, 1950, namely:—

In sub-rule (6) of rule 14 of the said Rules,—

- (a) for clause (iii), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—
“(iii) where the allotment is to be cancelled or varied—
(a) in accordance with an order made by a competent authority under section 8 of the East Punjab Refugees (Registration of Land Claims) Act, 1948;
- (b) on account of the failure of the allottee to take possession of the allotted evacuee property within six months of the date of allotment;
- (c) in consequence of a voluntary surrender of the allotted evacuee property, or a voluntary exchange with other available rural evacuee property, or a mutual exchange with such other available property;
- (d) in accordance with any general or special order of the Central Government.”

(b) after the existing proviso, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

“Provided further that nothing in this sub-rule shall apply to any application for revision, made under section 26 of the Act, within the prescribed time, against an order passed by a lower authority on or before 22nd July, 1952.”

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT

MERCHANT SHIPPING

New Delhi, the 16th February 1953

S.R.O. 352.—Whereas the Director General of Shipping is of opinion that, having regard to the nature of the voyages on which M. V. “JALARANI” is engaged while plying between Dhanushkodi and Rameswaram and other circumstances of the case, the provision of a wireless telegraph installation is unnecessary and unreasonable,

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to sub-section (I) of section 242 and by section 289 C of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (XXI of 1923), read with the Government of India Ministry of Transport Order No. 60-M.A(5)/49, dated the 5th November 1951, the Director General of Shipping hereby exempts from the obligations imposed by the said section 242, M. V. “JALARANI” while plying between Dhanushkodi and Rameswaram.

MINISTRY OF LABOUR

New Delhi, the 13th February 1953

S.R.O. 353.—In pursuance of Section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the award of the All India Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes), in a dispute between the Hindustan Commercial Bank Limited and its workmen.

AWARD

BEFORE THE ALL INDIA INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL (BANK DISPUTES) BOMBAY.

Shri K. L. Sanam	}	Serial Nos. 162, 167, 170, 297, 298,
Shri Gurcharan Singh.		335, 339 & 344.
Shri Lachman Das.
Shri A. N. Shukla.
Shri Rajendra Bahadur.		In Reference No. 2/1952.
Shri B. N. Khanna.
Shri Dhruv Kumar.		(S.R.O. 42, dated 8th January 1952).
Shri Manoharlal Tewari.
Versus
Hindustan Commercial Bank Ltd.

These are some of the disputes relating to the workmen of the Hindustan Commercial Bank Ltd. which have been referred to us for adjudication by the Government of India, Ministry of Labour Notification S.R.O. No. 42, dated 8th January 1952. They appear in the schedule as Serial Nos. 162, 167, 170, 297, 298, 335, 339 and 344. The nature of the disputes as set out therein is as follows:—

- Serial No. 162—Dismissal from Service.
- Serial No. 167—Dismissal from Service.
- Serial No. 170—Dismissal from Service.
- Serial No. 297—Confirmation in the Grade of Supervisors.
- Serial No. 298—Termination of Employment.
- Serial No. 335—Reduction in Increment.
- Serial No. 339—Termination of Service.
- Serial No. 344—Termination of Employment.

Notices were issued to the workmen by registered post calling upon them to file their statements. The notices were returned to us unserved. The office was directed to write to the Bank and ascertain from the Bank the correct particulars of the workmen's present addresses. The Bank replied that they were not in a position to add anything to the information already given. Thereafter, certain directions were issued to the Bank in the matter of serving fresh notices on the workmen through its agency. Fresh notices were also issued by the office directly to the workmen. The Bank has filed before us an affidavit of service which shows the extent to which the Bank was able to carry out our directions. The fresh notices issued by the office were again returned to us unserved except in Serial Nos. 170 and 297. The office has not so far received statements from any one of the workmen.

A reference to the proceedings of the Sen Tribunal shows that they were satisfied that no directions were called for in favour of the workmen except in the cases relating to the workmen concerned in Serial Nos. 297, 298 and 339. The office was directed to write to the Bank and ascertain how far in these three cases, the directions given by the Sen Tribunal, had been carried out. Regarding Serial No. 297 in which the Sen Tribunal directed confirmation of the workman in the grade of supervisor, the Bank wrote back that the concerned workman had since resigned from his post, that he was relieved of his duties on 15th June 1950 and that the question of confirmation in the grade of supervisor did not arise. As that for Serial No. 298 in which the Bank agreed to re-appoint the workman if the Treasurer agreed to take him back, the Bank replied that no appointment was made after the declaration of the award under that Treasurer. In respect of Serial No. 339 in which the Sen Tribunal directed the reinstatement of the workman, the Bank informed us that the concerned workman was offered an appointment at the Ahmedabad Branch but that he did not report for duty.

In these circumstances, we are satisfied that no useful purpose is served by keeping these files still pending. It does not appear that there are any disputes which require adjudication by us. We, therefore, pass an award that no orders are necessary.
